From Grand Avenue (at Snelling), transfer from Route 63 to the A Line for a quick trip to Highland Park. St. Paul resident Lora Horgen is the store manager at Stephanie's Shop, where you'll find new women's clothing and accessories. A short walk away is Pacifier, an urban baby + kid boutique. Distinctive restaurants, nearby parks and an art fair make Highland Park a prime destination.

Metro Transit bus route 63 provides easy access to Grand Avenue from the corner of Broadway Street and Kellogg Boulevard near Union Depot. Jahna Pelouquin, style editor

Bus and Shop

Take it from Justin Sutherland, executive chef at the Handsome Hog. Some of the best fresh produce in the Twin Cities is at the St. Paul Farmers Market along with baked goods, meat, cheeses, flowers and more. While you're in the area, take a cue from Robyne Robinson, the Director of Arts at Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport, and visit AZ Gallery and Legacy Chocolates.

Walk and Shop

A great way to experience St. Paul is to explore the city as a shopper. Start the fun at Union Depot where you'll find convenient light rail and bus service plus covered parking and even a bike shop. A wide range of shopping experiences are available within walking distance of Union Depot, and additional noteworthy shops and restaurants are easy bus rides away.
